[COMMUNICATED. I cordially endorse the sentiments of a communication in Friday's Gazette, and would add, that though God has not descended as it were in a chariot of fire, or visibly consumed the sacrifice upon the altar, though sinners have not flocked to Jesus like doves to their windows, yet some souls in our midst, like the prodigal of old, have returned to their fathers' house and found peace in believing. He who hath caused the cloud of mercy to distil these few drops in answer to prayer, is just as willing to open the windows of Heaven, and let the mighty shower descend. Says the blessed Saviour, "Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name he shall give it unto you." With this promise encouraging us, let us come with boldness unto the Throne of Heavenly Grace with our hearts bound closely together by the golden chain of Christian unity, a fit emblem of the family above, remembering that Jesus has prayed that we Christians might be one, even as he and his Father are one; and as sure as God's word is true, the mighty power of the Holy Spirit will descend, and our whole community will resound with Hosannas to God. The cloud of divine love is now bursting over our beloved land and neighboring countries, and why should not the power be felt here! Let our sincere prayer in our closets, and at the Union Meeting be-"Thy kingdom come," let it come now; and even now as upon the day of Pentecost, sinners will speak with new tongues, and Christians will rejoice has subscribed forty thousand dollars. anew in a prayer hearing, and a prayer answering God! "Remember, Lord the ancient days: Renew thy work, thy grace restore, And while to thee our hearts we raise, On us thy Holy Spirit pour." E. E. H.

A HINT.-The habit of some persons, in a certain neighborhood on King street, of taking from the doors of those who do subscribe for the Gazette, their papers, before those who pay for them even see them, is an evil and annoyance which the writer has long been subjected to, and from which he wishes to be relieved .- Can you suggest the means?

He saw the shark approaching, and took up an axe which lay in the boat, and dealt it a blow on the head, which he supposed had killed the shark, but in a few minutes he saw it again making for the boat, and when near, by a well directed blow, nearly severed the head from the body. This land is in a good state of improvement, well watered by never failing streams, is very productive, and well adapted to the growth of wheat, core, outs, tobacco and grass. It had upon it last winter, a good GEARED SAW-MILL, but by accident it bears to be a constitution of the constitut

It contains 384 ACRES, is well wooded and watered, and is divided into five fields. The soil is good, and i well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, and grass. Every field is now in grass, the most of it very fine—and having had no stock on any of the fields this season, a large portion of the grass would now do to mow.
